PAYMENT FOR OUR SERVICES

The only fees that ABT charge are membership fees. In addition, we normally receive commission from the insurers or product providers, details of which are available on request. Any commission we receive will be paid from the insurance premium payable by you. We will also make charges for handling your insurance. You will receive a quotation, which will tell you the total price to be paid, showing any fees, taxes and charges separately from the premium, before your insurance arrangements are concluded. For Catlin Insurance Company (UK) Ltd we may receive additional profit sharing payments if the volume of business we place with this insurer reaches certain pre-agreed amounts. These additional payments will come from the overall payments that the insurer receives in relation to this type of business. We also draw your attention to the sections headed Cancellation of Insurances and Ending your Relationship with us.

HANDLING MONEY

Our financial arrangements with most insurance companies are on a 'Risk Transfer' basis. This means that we act as agents of the insurer in collecting premiums and handling refunds due to clients. In these circumstances such monies are deemed to be held by the insurer(s) with which your insurance is arranged. However, if Risk Transfer does not apply, such monies will be held by us in a Statutory Trust account set up in accordance with FCA rules. Interest earned on monies held in such a Statutory Trust account will be retained by us.

If you object to your money being held in a Statutory Trust account you should advise us immediately. Otherwise, your agreement to pay the insurance premium and/or membership together with your acceptance of these Terms of Business will constitute your informed consent to ABT holding your money in Statutory Trust account. For the purpose of some transactions, client and /or Insurers money may pass through other authorised intermediaries, i.e. Balens Limited, before it is received by the insurer.

CANCELLATION OF MEMBERSHIP AND INSURANCES

You should make any request for the cancellation of membership or an insurance policy in writing and any relevant documents or certificates of insurance should be returned to us. You are entitled to cancel insurance policies within 14 days from the day your period of insurance started and in this instance you would be entitled to a full refund of insurance premiums paid.

If there has been a claim within that period there will be no refund of insurance premiums paid.

You should also be aware that, in certain circumstances according to the terms of membership and insurance policies, insurers may be entitled to cancel your policy and allow a proportionate return of premium. If you allow your insurance to lapse we may not be able to reinstate the policy incorporating previous terms, conditions and costing.

ENDING OUR RELATIONSHIP

You may terminate our authority to act on your behalf with 14 days notice or as otherwise agreed without penalty. Notice of this termination must be given in writing and will take effect from the date of receipt. Termination is without prejudice to any transactions already initiated which will be completed according to these terms of business unless otherwise agreed in writing.

You will be liable to pay for any transactions of adjustments effective prior to termination and we will be entitled to retain any and all membership fees or insurance brokerage payable in relation to insurance policies placed by us prior to the date of termination. In circumstances where we feel we cannot continue providing services to you, we will give you a minimum of 7 days notice.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

You are responsible for answering any questions or assumptions you may agree to honestly and to the best of your knowledge, providing the complete and accurate information which insurers require in connection with any proposal for insurance cover. This is particularly important before taking out a policy but also at renewal or if you make a mid-term amendment to your policy. If you fail to disclose information, or misrepresent any fact which may influence the insurer's decision to accept the risk or the terms offered, this could invalidate the policy and mean that claims may not be paid in part or full. They might also be entitled to keep any premium you have paid.

For your protection, insurers maintain databases to prevent fraud and the information you give us may be subject to checks.

As you are a commercial customer, you have a duty to give a fair presentation of risk to the insurer. This requires disclosure of every material circumstance which you and where applicable your senior management or persons responsible for your insurance know or ought to know following a reasonable search of information available. It should include all facts that would influence the judgement of the insurer or that would put the insurer on notice that it needs to make further enquiries. The information must be presented in a way which would be reasonably clear and accessible to a prudent insurer. If you are unsure whether to disclose any information you should speak to us.

Failure to provide the 'fair representation' may result in a number of remedies by the insurer. If the breach was deliberate or reckless the insurer can void the contract and keep the premium. If the breach was not deliberate or reckless the insurer can apply whichever remedy relevant to the way they would have acted if the breach had not occurred. This could include rendering the insurance void, proportionately reducing a claim settlement or amending the insurance policy terms and conditions then reviewing the merits of a claim on this basis

You should therefore always provide complete and accurate information to us when questioned regarding the insurance risks your business faces before taking out a policy, at renewal and throughout the life of the policy. This also applies to your responses in relation to any assumptions you may agree to in the process of applying for insurance cover.

You must check all details on any proposal form or Statement of Facts and pay particular attention to any declaration you may be asked to sign. You must read all insurance documents issued to you and ensure that you are aware of the cover, limits and other terms that apply. Particular attention should be paid to any warranties and conditions as failure to comply with them could invalidate your policy. You must take note of the required procedures in the event of a claim, which will be stated in the policy documentation. Generally, Insurers require immediate notification of a claim or circumstances that might lead to a claim. You must inform us immediately of any changes in circumstances that may affect the services provided by us or the cover provided by your policy. If you are unsure about any matter, please contact us for guidance. Changes of Circumstances Notification -You must notify us in writing if there are any changes since originally completing your proposal form or other relevant documentation, as this could have a bearing on your cover. We undertake to notify this to your Insurers and supply appropriate documentation for the alteration.

USE OF PERSONAL DATA

We will process any personal information we obtain in the course of providing our services to you in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. In administering your insurances and/or claims it will be necessary for us to pass such information to insurers and other product or service providers or your professional body/training school, these parties maybe inside or outside the European Economic Area. We may also disclose details to relevant parties, as necessary, to comply with regulatory or legal requirements. We will not otherwise use or disclose the personal information we hold without your consent. Some of the details you may be asked to give us, such as information about offences, are defined by the Act as sensitive personal data. By giving us such information you signify your consent to its being processed by us in arranging and administering your insurance. Subject to certain exemptions, you will be entitled to have access to your personal data for which we reserve the right to charge a reasonable fee (as at 1 January 2011 a reasonable fee in connection with this matter is defined as £10/€13). CLAIMS HANDLING ARRANGEMENTS

It is essential that Balens are notified immediately of any claims, or circumstances which could give rise to a claim providing details honestly and accurately. Your policy wordings will describe in detail the procedure and conditions in connection with making a claim. The final decision regarding the payment of a claim will be made by the relevant insurer. In addition to providing a claims handling service Balens will:

- Employ due care and skill if we act on your behalf in respect of a claim.
- Give you guidance on pursuing a claim under the policy and, if required, negotiate with Insurers on your behalf.
- Provide you with information about how to handle complaints and potential clashes between you and your clients.
- Inform you in writing if we are unable to deal with any part of a claim.
- Handle claims fairly and promptly and keep you informed of their progress.
- Account to you, without avoidable delay, once a claim has been agreed and settled.

Settlement of claims will be dependent upon decisions and collection from insurers. Part payment may be made during the collection process, but ABT or Balens cannot be responsible for the wrongful non-payment or delay by insurers in paying any claim. Claims information may be used by Balens or insurers concerned for underwriting, statistical analysis, management information, market research and risk management. Insurers may pass your claims information to the Claims and Underwriting Exchange Register, run by Insurance Database Services Ltd (IDSL) & the Association of British Insurers (ABI). Also, to prevent and detect fraud, insurers may share your claims information with the Police. We may also share your claims information with any association or professional body that you are a member of.

QUOTATION VALIDITY PERIOD

There is usually a 15 or 30 day validity period after which it will be necessary to re-quote. This will be stated in your quotation letter which you should refer to. It will be necessary to sign a further declaration after a 30 day period has expired in order to go on cover or continue cover. Cover for previous work performed (retroactive cover) may not be included by Insurers if a gap has occurred between a previous policy and a new or renewal one. Cover also needs to be provided after termination (run-off) on some of our specialised policies should you not take up a renewal from us, please always refer to our instructions and information in this regard.
